Substantial Rise in Cost of Living Sure to Follow Latest 15 Per Cent Boost in Canada Freight Rates

MONTREAL—Railway sources today confirmed the 15 per cent increase in freight rates on all competitive lines in Canada will go into effect Sept. 15.

In Ottawa, a transport board spokesman said the new freight rate boost was announced in special tariff supplements issued by Canadian National Railways and Canadian Pacific Railways. It will be additional to the general 21 per cent increase authorized last April by the Board of Transport Commissioners.

The transport board spokesman emphasized it should not be confused with the railways' application last month to the board for an interim 15 per cent general increase in rates and a permanent increase of 20 per cent. He said the proposed increase in competitive rates was entirely a matter for the railways in areas where they meet competition from trucks and ships.

In Vancouver, businessmen said British Columbia will feel the effect of the increase more than any other section of Canada. "The increase will be another blow to B.C.'s basic and secondary industries and will mean a rise in the living costs on practically everything we eat, use or wear," an industry spokesman said.

A. K. Loyd, general manager of B.C. Tree Fruits, was non-committal over the freight rate increase, stating he would make no statement until he had a chance to study the reports. He intimated, however, that the rising cost of transportation would probably be partly absorbed by the consuming public.

PRICES PEGGED ON FLOUR, BREAD

OTTAWA—The Prices Board announced today price ceiling control was being reimposed on all flour made wholly or partly from western Canadian wheat and all bread made wholly or partly from such flour. The price at which these are frozen today is at the same trade level in effect on July 31.

That was the date Trade Minister Howe announced a 45 per cent increase in the domestic price of wheat. The board said a subsidy would be paid to keep down the prices of flour and bread. The board said it was acting on government instructions in reimposing the ceiling control.

C.C.F. CONVENTION OPENS IN WINNIPEG

WINNIPEG, Man.—A broad national socialization program is due for public airing today as the C.C.F.'s biennial conference opens with delegates from all provinces attending.

The 10-point national program—considered apart from 150 other resolutions on the agenda—was drafted by the party's national executive council at the pre-convention caucus. It calls for socializing of banks, railways, a wide range of primary industry, including several touching agriculture.

NEW ZEALAND REVALUATES CURRENCY

WELLINGTON, N.Z.—New Zealand today revalued its currency on a parity with Britain's sterling. China is expected to announce today a new money plan pegged to the United States dollar.

Boost in the New Zealand pound from 16 to 20 English shillings ($3.20 to $4) is the first upward revaluation in any currency since Canada's and Sweden's jumps in the summer of 1946.

New Zealand's boost was 25 per cent compared with Canada's 11 per cent and Sweden's 17. Australia has announced her pound will not be changed.

RUSSIAN TEACHER'S CONDITION CRITICAL

NEW YORK—Mrs. Oksana Stepanovna Kosenkina, Russian school teacher who leaped from a third-floor window in the Soviet Consulate here last week, is reported to be sinking today. She was placed in an oxygen tent and given a blood transfusion late yesterday.

Late reports today from the hospital here say: "Mrs. Kosenkina's condition shows improvement this morning."

U.S. PREPARES REJECTION NOTE

WASHINGTON—Top United States State Department officials today put into final form their note rejecting the Soviet accusations and demands in the case of the refugee Russian school teacher, Mrs. O. S. Kosenkina. The document will be delivered to the Soviet Embassy by nightfall.

NEARLY EVERYONE IN CANADA WORKS

OTTAWA—Employment in Canada is being maintained at a high level, the Bureau of Statistics reported today. A survey of the week ending June 5 showed almost 5,000,000 (4,948,000) Canadians had jobs of a total "working force" of 5,030,000.

This working force total is the second highest on record. The highest was in August, 1947.

NEW IMPORTANCE FOR VANCOUVER

VANCOUVER—This Pacific Coast port is fast on the way to becoming North America's main surface connection with Australia.

The Canadian-Australasian Line's Aorangi is starting a new service, leaving its Australian terminal tomorrow. The line now is awaiting two new British-built liners to bring service up to pre-war strength. The only American line carrying passengers to Australia discontinued its service Tuesday.

FRASER SALMON CATCH LOWER

VANCOUVER, B.C.—Fraser River salmon catch this year will not meet earlier expectations, fishermen predicted today. A spokesman said he anticipated 1,000,000 salmon would not exceed 600,000 to 700,000.

MOUNTAIN CLIMBER PLUNGES TO DEATH

OCEAN FALLS, B.C.—John Alexander Goudie, 25-year-old amateur mountain climber from Newdale, Man., pitched wildly down a 140-foot boulder-studded mountain side yesterday to his death.

Goudie was climbing a precarious waterfall course on Mount Carol Marion, a 4,000-foot peak directly behind the Pacific Paper Mills company town of Ocean Falls, 300 miles north of Vancouver. He stumbled on a ledge and plunged down near a perpendicular water course. Two companions, climbing with Goudie, were unable to save him.

75,000 PAY LAST TRIBUTE TO BABE RUTH

NEW YORK—A crowd of 75,000 persons jammed the area surrounding towering St. Patrick's Cathedral in downtown New York today in a final tribute to Babe Ruth, king of baseball.

At the requiem Mass in the Roman Catholic cathedral, some 6,000 persons knelt with bowed heads as Francis Cardinal Spellman prayed to the Divine Spirit "that inspired Babe Ruth to overcome hardships and win" the crucial game of life may animate many generations of American youth.

Over $10,000 Subscribed Within Three Hours in Legion Bond Drive

BONDS amounting to slightly over $10,000 were either purchased or pledged within three hours after the local branch of the Canadian Legion opened its bond drive Monday night in an effort to raise funds for the new $60,000 memorial hall.

Deeming it an honor and privilege, Mayor W. B. Hughes-Games made the first purchase — bonds are all $50 denominations — and to show his faith in their security, promised to buy another one for each 100 bonds sold.

The drive, opening with a rally in the Scout Hall Monday night, will last for two weeks. Another $2,000 has been subscribed since then, bringing this morning's total to $12,050.

Jack Gordon, president of the local branch and first of a group of speakers at the rally, officially opened the bond drive with the inspiring promise: "I'll see this thing through if it's the last thing I do."

While attendance was disappointing both Mr. Gordon and Bob Hayman, master of ceremonies for the evening, expressed confidence the drive for the $60,000 would be successful.

Mr. Gordon said the plans of the building, already approved by the building committee and membership, would provide for a two-story building at an estimated cost of $60,000. The Legion had about $26,000 in the bank before the bond drive.

One of the features stressed by Mr. Gordon and other speakers was the large gymnasium on the second floor that would be "suitable for all types of indoor games."

The gymnasium would also be used as an auditorium with a seating capacity of 800 persons and a potential capacity of 1,000. "That's something this city has been needing for a long time," said Mr. Gordon.

Increased 600 Members
Purchase of bonds will be restricted to the membership, Mr. Gordon said, either outright or on the time payment plan.

Mayor Hughes-Games reviewed the trying times in the past when, in the face of many difficulties, the Legion here was able to erect the building presently in use. Since then, he said, the membership has shown an increase of over 600. "It is quite apparent that it is time to build again. We should see it done," His Worship declared.

Others who addressed the bond rally at the Scout Hall were Magistrate Harry Angle, Mrs. M. Badley, president of the ladies' auxiliary; Mrs. B. G. Ansell, on behalf of the women veterans; Ven D. S. Catchpole, Legion chaplain.

A varied program of entertainment rounded out the evening.

RECORD SET IN AMOUNT OF RAINFALL

The weatherman has turned the tables completely this year, throwing down the wettest August far since records have been kept here.

Precipitation to date for the month of August is 3.46 inches, while the 32-year average has been .77, less than one inch. Oldtimers say they've never seen anything like it and probably never will again.

According to Dave Chapman, Sr., local weather observer, it has rained 12 of the 19 days this month. In the 24-hour period last Friday more than one inch of rain fell. Over half an inch fell on Sunday afternoon and evening.

CITY COUNCIL MONDAY NIGHT

City Council Monday night received an application from E. T. Tighe for the position of junior clerk in the city office. The matter was referred to the finance committee with power to act.

RECEIVED APPLICATION

City Council Monday night received an application from E. T. Tighe for the position of junior clerk in the city office. The matter was referred to the finance committee with power to act.

Gone Too Far

"There is nothing to stop them from quitting," Alderman Jack Ladd replied, adding that the city had already gone too far in wage demands. He thought the salaries of $150 for a probationary fireman and $180 for a fourth year driver, was ample.

"The local firemen are trying to compare themselves with Vancouver and New Westminster where fire fighting duties are really hazardous," declared Alderman Jack Horn. "Some of these men work at other jobs during their time off, and I doubt whether you would be able to get all the paid firemen out at a moment's notice if there was a bad fire here," he added.

"These firemen are ordinary truck drivers, and I think we have already gone too far," Alderman Dick Parkinson said.

Alderman W. T. L. Roadhouse charged that the firemen's union would get on community to boost the wages, and then in turn use these figures against another city.

During the discussion, Mr. Wilkinson reiterated the fact the firemen cannot go on strike.

After Mr. Wilkinson spoke to the council, the matter was referred to committee, and it was unanimously decided not to grant a further increase.

Mr. Wilkinson told the council the government had come under heavy pressure from the firemen's union. In view of the fact firemen or police cannot go on strike, the labor relations board had decided that whenever a majority award of a conciliation board is not carried out, the department would step in and try to settle the dispute.

This case has been before the department several times, and I am making an appeal to the city council to change its stand," Mr. Wilkinson said. He said the board had taken the local matter seriously enough to send Col. McIntosh and himself to Kelowna. "Either the minister or the labor department will step in and see if any mandatory clause can be included in the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act if a majority award is not carried out," Mr. Wilkinson said. "I am not dictating to the City of Kelowna. I am only appealing to the city to grant the unanimous award," he said.

Need Floats

Kelowna Stampede officials are looking for floats for the Labor Day parade.

Anxious to make this year's parade surpass last year's successful display in color and magnitude, men in charge advise they want as many floats as possible.

Businessmen and industry, lodges and organizations wishing to enter a float are asked to advise "Whitley" Patquin at Whitey's Ellis Street Service Station.

TEN PERCENT WAGE BOOST REQUESTED

Electrical Workers and Civic Employees Want Increase to Offset Living Costs

City Council was given a jolt Monday night when a letter was received from members of the Civic Employees' Union, and the Brotherhood of Electrical Workers' union, asking for an increase of ten cents an hour.

It was estimated that the increase in wages would cost the city between $8,000 and $9,000 between now and the end of the year. The petition was signed by 12 members of the electrical union, and 23 civic employees.

"This has taken us by surprise," remarked Mayor W. B. Hughes-Games. Alderman Jack Ladd sympathized with the steady increase in the cost of living, but said he did not know where the money would come from.

The matter was eventually referred to the finance committee for a report.

CITY RECEIVES PROTESTS OVER BUILDING WALKS

City Council Monday night received several protests from owners of property on Leon and Lawrence Avenue over the proposed sidewalk construction project, which will be handled under the local improvement bylaw scheme.

Some of the property owners did not give any reason for protesting, while others thought the walks are unnecessary. It was revealed that property owners have a valid time to object to the project.

The matter was eventually laid on the table after brief discussion.

KELOWNA DOG SHOW RATED BIG SUCCESS

Officials Unable to Find Time to Compile Results Due to Pentition Show

Central and Southern Okanagan is "going to the dogs" this week. More prize dogs of virtually all breeds were on display in the Okanagan Valley this week than ever before.

After a two-day show here — with a separate show on Monday and Tuesday — sponsored by the B.C. Interior Kennel Club, most of the dogs were taken to Pentition for a show during the Peach Festival now in progress.

Steady crowds jammed the Exhibition Building both days for the show here this week, and many local dog-lovers were among the prize winners. Officials of the B.C. Interior Kennel Club reported the Kelowna show "highly successful."

However, with the rush to get the dogs to Pentition the next day, results could not be compiled for publication in this issue of the Courier.

The show in Pentition is under the auspices of the South Okanagan Kennel Club.

Jim Browne Fractures Leg, Arm

Falls in Barbed Wire Entanglement as Son Tries to Remove wire fence

Private Dispute Over Property Rights Between Radio Head and Blake Family

J. W. B. Browne, managing director of radio station CKOV, fractured his right arm and left leg last night as a result of a property dispute between the radio station manager and his next door neighbors, H. A. and F. H. Blake.

For the past two weeks there has been a dispute between the Blakes and Browne over the right-of-way of a piece of property which the Blakes plan to subdivide. The matter came to a head early this week when Mr. Browne found the driveway barricaded with barbed wire and trees.

He has only been able to gain access to his house by cutting the wire with pliers. However, last week-end a huge tree was felled across the driveway, and Mr. Browne had to attach a chain to the tree and pull it away from the driveway before he could leave the premises.

Last night, his son, Jim, was assisting him to remove the barbed wire entanglement and a wire fence. Jim attached a chain to the back of a jeep, and when he started forward, his father, who was standing nearby, was struck by the wire. He was entangled with the wire when his son rushed to his assistance.

Mr. Browne was rushed to the Kelowna General Hospital, and this morning his condition was reported "fairly good." Jim, who has been suffering from arthritis for a long time, is expected the bones will take a much longer time to knit.

No Fire Protection
At last Monday night's council meeting, Mr. Browne said while he did not want to overburden city fathers with his personal troubles, he appealed for some form of assistance, until he could get an injunction. He declared he is at present without fire protection as a result of the barricade. No deliveries of meat and laundry have been made.

The dispute concerns the subdivision of property at the corner of Christie and Abbott Streets. Mr. Browne said he had been told the city council would sanction any subdivision plans, they decided to wait until the dispute between the Blakes and Browne is cleared up. C. Beeston is acting on behalf of Mr. Browne.

The matter was eventually referred to the finance committee for a report.

JAP STANDS TRIAL OVER LIQUOR COUNT

Trial of Toshio Hiroawa, Japanese, 1609 Abbott St., on charges of keeping liquor for sale, started this morning before Police Magistrate H. Angle in city police court.

Hiroawa appeared in court two weeks ago and pleaded not guilty. He was given two months until police were ready to proceed against him.

This latest trial is the third one for the Japanese. Three times in the past three months, the Abbott St. home has been raided by members of the local detachment, B.C. Police.

He was fined $300 in May for selling liquor, and $400 in July for keeping liquor for sale.

C. G. Beeston, local barrister, is defence counsel.

ELEVEN PEOPLE ESCAPE INJURY NEAR WESTBANK

Eleven people narrowly escaped serious injury when two cars slid off a bridge near McDougall Creek of the Kelowna-Westbank highway shortly after midnight Wednesday.

Damage has been estimated as about $400 to each car. Drivers of the cars, proceeding in opposite directions, were W. Gillard, Summerland, and Miss Doris Leathley, Kelowna, police advised. Mr. Gillard was returning home after attending the Conservative meeting in Kelowna last night.

One car had six passengers, the other five, according to police. After the crash one of the cars proceeded a considerable distance out of control, but was held to the road surface.

FIRE SCHOOL HERE SEPT. 2-4

A fire marshalls' travelling instructional unit will be in Kelowna September 2, 3 and 4 to hold a course of instruction in fire fighting and fire prevention, Kelowna's City Council was informed Monday night.

The unit is visiting various points in the province, and it is expected every member of the volunteer brigade will take advantage of the course.

Names of Seven-Man Arena Commission Released This Morning by Mayor Hughes-Games—Rural Representative Will Be Appointed Next Week—Considerable Amount of Work to Be Done Before Official Opening November 11

Consider Applications For Manager

KELOWNA'S newly-appointed arena commission will swing into action immediately in preparation for the official opening of the Kelowna and District War Memorial Arena on Armistice Day, November 11.

This morning, Mayor W. B. Hughes-Games released the names of the seven-man arena commission, and one of the first duties of the newly-appointed body, will be the engaging of an arena manager. Dick Parkinson will be the city council representative on the commission, while other city members are George E. Brown, Vic Gregory, Charlie Pettman, R. Seath, and R. Whillis. George Fitzgerald was asked to be the country representative, but he declined the offer. Appointment of a rural representative will be made next week.

The Kelowna and District War Memorial Arena is being rushed to completion, and as soon as the building is finished, the artificial ice plant will be installed. In view of the fact the arena will be officially opened within the next three months, the commission will probably meet immediately to decide on the appointment of a manager. There is a considerable amount of work to be done, in making arrangements for the official opening. All members of the commission will serve without remuneration.

Meet Monthly
The commission will set up its own bylaws. It must meet at least once a month. A special meeting may be called by the chairman or any two members. The board will elect its own chairman. He will be elected after the first of April each year.

The commission will have complete authority over all arena administrative affairs, including hiring, firing and regulation of employees, prices and public use of the building.

The commission must turn over at least once a week all receipts to the city treasurer. The city treasurer will open a special bank account for arena purposes and from this the commission will pay its expenses. All expense vouchers must be signed by the chairman and one member of the commission.

The commission must prepare a financial statement for the previous year at the end of each September. The statement is to be prepared in accordance with city practice and will be published when the city financial statement is published.

Employees Bonded
When possible half of the annual debt charges on the $80,000 debt issue will be taken from the arena fund and paid into the general funds of the city. The arena fund will be made up of the city's share of the city when the city agreed to present the bylaw to the ratepayers.

Commission books will be audited by the city auditor. All arena commission employees handling funds must be bonded.

Plans Are Moving Ahead for Fifth Annual Kelowna Stampede which will Be Sponsored by Local Elks Sept. 6-7

THE fifth Kelowna Stampede, the Orchard City's second major summer celebration, is less than three weeks away—Monday and Tuesday, September 6 and 7.

Kelowna Lodge 52, B.P.O. Elks, under whose auspices the stampedes have been operated since their inauguration in 1944, are busy with preparations for the days when cowboys take over and bring chunks of the west right into the centre of the fruit belt.

Some major changes have been made this year, the Elks have announced. Notably they are: A Calgary rodeo authority will handle the arena events; prize money has been dropped from $3,000 to $2,250; the point-to-point race down Knox Mountain and chuck-wagon races are out.

After four years trying to handle by themselves the events that draw cowpokes from all over the Pacific Northwest, the Elks have decided to award a contract to Ken Thomson, Calgary rodeo manager, for this year's stampede.

Thomson is at present at Pentition, arranging some of the riding, roping, decorating and other events at the Peach Festival. He is expected to arrive in Kelowna late this week.

Until then, complete details of his plans are not available. Elks officials here, however, advise Thomson has been directing rodeos for a number of years and is one of the most capable men for the job in the west.

Spokesmen point out the drop of $750 in prize money from last year's will not affect the prizes for the five major events—bronze riding, saddle and bareback, steer riding and decorating, and calf roping.

Most of the $750 would have gone to the chuck-wagon and point-to-point race. The former has been called off because the present track and infield have been found too small to handle the races properly. Besides, the races have drawn only two or three outfits, usually the same every year.

Somewhat the same situation as the latter existed in past point-to-point races. However, a mass exhibition of riding down the mountain side may be given, a spokesman advised.

The annual colorful stampede parade will go off as usual at 11 a.m. Labor Day, with floats, bands, clowns, cowboys.

CIACCIA FIRM ON CROWLEY WATER RIGHTS

Paul Ciaccia, property owner in the north end of the city, informed the City Council Monday night that "I will have no man interfering with Crowley Slough in any way, filling it in, or else I have water rights on the above to irrigate my farm."

There has been a long-standing dispute between Mr. Ciaccia and the city over water rights on Crowley Slough, and the city claims it is holding up development of the industrial section. Alderman Jack Horn, public works chairman, made an alternative proposal to Mr. Ciaccia, and when no agreement could be reached, the matter was turned over to the city solicitor.

Mr. Ciaccia stated he had also sent a similar letter to C.N.R. officials at Winnipeg and Vancouver.

EXTEND LAKE WALL
Alderman Dick Parkinson was requested to interview government officials with a view of having the lake wall at the foot of Bernard Ave. continued up to the ferry wharf.

Lake Levels

A week ago "r p m" attempting to analyze the lake level situation in an article in this paper, concluded that it would be well after the middle of October before the "agreed maximum" of 102.5 is reached by the lake. In fact, he concluded that given normal conditions in the next two months, the lake might be reduced to that figure by October 22. Many have said "r p m" was optimistic in his article; very few have held that he was pessimistic.

Conditions admittedly this year have been most unusual and have all had a detrimental effect on the lake level. There is no need to recite them; only to recall the very abnormal rainfall and the lack of evaporation. This latter has been an important contribution to the lake level. Normally in the Okanagan the water content of the air in July and August is between 20 and 30 per cent. This year it has been between 55 and 64. The inevitable result is that there was little evaporation when evaporation was counted upon to materially assist in reducing the lake level.

The present situation brings new problems and ones which will become more important as the days slip by and the lake remains above the 102.5 figure.

The first and more immediate is that many homes in this area will have water still in their basements when the cool weather demands some fire. Indeed, today many homes have water in their furnaces and take a rather grim view of the approach of the cool weather under such condition. The furnaces affected, of course, are the wood furnaces six inches off the basement floor, but this type of furnace is used extensively here.

A second problem which is commencing to give the authorities some concern, we imagine, is how under such conditions will they reduce the lake sufficiently to handle next year's runoff without a repetition of the present conditions.

While a reduction of another eighteen or twenty inches will pretty well see Kelowna out of the flood conditions, the lake must still be reduced to the agreed minimum, 99.5, before next spring in order that the flood waters of the creeks may be handled by the lake next summer. It is imperative that the lake be reduced to that figure, at least. Indeed, this spring it was taken below that level and the control was obviously ineffective.

The trouble, of course, is the inability of Okanagan River to handle sufficient water. This condition will remain until the flood control recommendations of the joint board of engineers are completed.

The immediate trouble is that Okanagan River is only carrying 1340 cubic feet per second of water over the control dam at Penticton. This amount does not even counteract the inflow from the creeks, as witnessed by the rise in the lake level last week.

In the spring, when the creeks were running full, the flow from the river was restricted as a safety measure for the Oliver irrigation syphon, which at one time was in some danger. But this condition has long since been removed and, as far as the Oliver irrigation syphon is concerned, much more water could be let into the river from the lake. Another foot could go over the dam and it would not affect the Oliver syphon.

The present cause of the restricted flow—for it is a restricted flow; restricted by the federal department of public works—is the area, we believe between Penticton and Skaha Lake. There is some agricultural land in this area which would be flooded if more water were let through the dam.

Rightly or wrongly—and we do not question the decision—the federal public works engineers in charge of the control dam decided that this land should not be flooded as it would eliminate entirely the crops of a Japanese farmer and some meadow land. The decision was that as this area "had had it" as far as the high water was concerned, it would do no harm to "have it" somewhat longer in order that these crops on the river might be saved. Not an entirely unreasonable decision, perhaps, in June.

Now, however, it begins to look that the federal authorities had guessed wrong; that the weather has frustrated their plans complete and posed them a new set of problems.

How does the public works department expect to get Kelowna out of flood conditions before the cold weather arrives?

How does the department expect to get the lake down to the agreed maximum before the spring runoff of 1949?

There is only one possible answer: a greater volume of water being sent out of the lake into the river.

This area has the greatest possible sympathy with the people farming along the river; it is a real sympathy based on experience. When the Oliver syphon was in danger there was never a suggestion here that we should do other than "take it" to have the syphon. It would regret greatly any inconveniences that might be caused persons who had thus far escaped flood conditions along the river.

But it does seem reasonable to suggest, that the department officials should do everything in their power to increase the river flow. The agricultural crops should be harvested as quickly as possible in order that that land may be flooded to relieve the lake.

In May and June conditions were quite different than they are now. The cool weather is now approaching and conditions are worsening and viewpoints are changing. Flood conditions in June and July are one thing; flood conditions in October and November are something else.

Alberta Elections

As expected the Social Credit government was returned to power in the provincial election in Alberta on Tuesday. While complete returns are not available as this is written, it is obvious that the opposition parties made but slight inroads into the government's majority in the legislature.

The campaign was notable for its drowsiness. Probably no election in this country in the past three decades has been fought in such a kid-glove manner as that just concluded in Alberta. The candidates seemed reluctant to take a stand on the main issues or to even look for basic differences in methods of achieving similar ends.

True, the CCF advanced its socialization scheme with a discreet lack of vigor, while the government made its usual promises to farmers, to municipalities, to cities, to workers and to industry. It advocated hospitalization, social security, good roads and prosperity. And with these objectives its opponents, of course, agreed but they failed to offer specific methods of their own.

The newspapers never did become really interested in the campaign. The leaders received a couple of inches of space, but the ordinary candidate was lucky if he was mentioned at all. The newspapers, apparently, were quite sure the government would be re-elected and felt that the election was so cut and dried it was hardly "news worthy."

One little flurry caught the interest momentarily. That was when Mr. Coldwell charged that the Social Credit government had the king's printer publish election campaign material. Perhaps this is different from having the king's printer print material all through the intervals between elections, as in Saskatchewan, so designed as to aid the party in office, the CCF politically. But the difference is hardly discernible to eyes other than those of the CCF.

The most curious thing about the election was the general tendency of all parties to avoid real clashes of opinion and the absence of strong critical attacks on the record of the government, which is certainly vulnerable at many points. For example, there was barely mention of the welfare services over which there was a considerable disturbance resulting in investigations by a royal commission. Instead of discussing this or the municipal-provincial relations or education over which there was a row about a year ago, or, in fact, anything in the way of administrative sins or virtues, the candidates devoted themselves to side issues, such as whether there should be mixed drinking in Calgary beer parlors.

Notwithstanding the serious losses it sustained in the recent Saskatchewan election, the CCF made a strong bid in Alberta for the second consecutive election. In 1944 only 2 of the 57 candidates running under the socialist banner were elected. On Tuesday, first reports indicate, the party did little, if any, better. The tendency of late has been for the CCF party to identify itself more closely with labor, in some instances to the point of exclusivity. While some leaders of that movement fear, and justly so, that this tendency will eventually wipe out any chance they have of becoming a national party, and while those same leaders are making an effort to appeal to the farmers, it would appear that the damage has been done.

This week's election marked the return of the Liberal party to Alberta provincial politics. The last Liberal administration of that province was defeated by the United Farmers of Alberta in 1921. After the advent of Social Credit the Liberals elected only three of their candidates in 1940 and dropped out of the picture entirely in 1944 when they did not contest a single seat. Under the circumstances it was not to be expected that on Tuesday they would make any sensational showing. The best that can be said for their efforts is that they did as well as the better-organized CCF.

During recent months there has been a spate of provincial elections and in every case the administration has been returned to office, although in some cases with a reduced majority. The recent prosperous times we are enjoying in Canada undoubtedly gives the party in power something of an advantage in any election contest. Nevertheless the election in Alberta was a foregone conclusion and the results simply live up to the expectation of even the most casual observer.

Ostracize the Hornblowers

It would be foolish to expect laws to do for the manners what they have been unable to do for the morals of our times. Laws cannot compel the ignorant and the thoughtless to consider the feelings of others. But, perhaps, public opinion can do something and certainly there is cause for public opinion to go to work on those ill-mannered persons who insist on blowing automobile horns unnecessarily. The practice has been the subject of considerable newspaper comment from all sections of the country recently. The Penticton Herald last week discussing the matter said:

A Fine Performance

"The announcement that Recorder Laurence Plante of Montreal has served notice that, hereafter, he will impose a fine of one dollar on every motorist who blows his horn unnecessarily brings a warm glow of relief to everyone, with the possible exception of the manufacturer of motor horns.

"The automobile horn, it was pointed out in a recent editorial by the Fort Erie Review, was conceived in an aura of good citizenship. It was to be a pleasant warning and a safe-guard. It has become a habit, however, to use the horn instead of the head or feet regardless of the fact that noise was never intended to replace thought. As an instance, the experience of a harried traveller in a small Canadian city that shall be nameless, because the instance is no more common to it than to other places that almost anyone could enumerate. The traveller had found his hotel and retired early to prepare himself for a strenuous day to come. He was awakened at eleven by the persistent clamor of a horn under his window. The experience was repeated at one a.m. and again at four and seven. About then the traveller gave up the uneven contest between sleep and noise and decided to arise and investigate. It seemed that the hotel clerk and the taximen had developed a code for their own personal convenience.

"The father of several blooming daughters is rapidly becoming irritable and grey, developing a low regard for his daughters' friends, and losing the wholesome respect of his neighbors, because modern youth has grown attuned to noise. In the brave days of the past, chivalry stood as a picturesque, if not always meaningful way of life. The gentilities were observed—at least among one's friends. But the modern young Lochinvar, instead of dismounting and approaching his lady with all deference, keeps one foot on the brake and one finger on the horn button and challenges her to make a run for it.

"The sum total of all this is that we live in an almost universal bedlam that gives little opportunity, and a steadily lessening inclination, to think quietly. A dollar an unnecessary toot? Well perhaps it is not too much if thereby we convince some thoughtless people that a little less noise and a little more courtesy might have a tangible value."

This unnecessary blowing of automobile horns is an old and nasty habit, and one that has not been made more tolerable by the horns on modern motor cars.

There are many types of hornblowers. There is, of course, the chap who honks a good-bye serenade to his girl friend. Equally as obnoxious is the type that signals his arrival to pick up his friends (they are never ready) by blowing his horn continuously until they appear. There is the fellow who has no patience with traffic jams, and who labors under the delusion that only the extraordinary power of his horn can clear them. He has about as much success as he would have in persuading Niagara Falls to flow the other way, but he sticks to his "method" block after noisy block. And then, too, there is the wedding party type which parades the streets with his asinine blatant noises.

There are anti-noise bylaws, within limitations they might be better used than at present. A few examples in a magistrate's court might have a sobering effect on other addicts. But what will be most effective is social ostracism; the hornblower, of whatever category, is a brand of exhibitionist which every community can do without. It is as much an obligation of his "best friends," as of the police to teach him courtesy.

And motor car designers might lend a practical hand. A horn that can be heard in traffic is a necessity, but there is nothing to the theory that the only effective horn is one which literally blasts the pedestrian back to the curb from a distance of seventy feet. Nor can there be sufficient market among the jitterbugs to make the motor horn's faithful imitation of a jive band a major selling attraction.

Charges that a jobber-shipper combine exists in the Okanagan Valley were made at a public meeting held in the Union Fruit Hall at Vernon on Tuesday evening.

A memorandum supporting the charges was put forward by D. Godfrey Isaacs, of Oyanma, whose allegations were supported by a series of company reports, statements and other data, as well as an affidavit signed by J. H. Reader, until recently an employee of Brown-Lander Co. Ltd., Vernon.

Names were specifically mentioned with the Western Grocers Ltd., Dominion Fruit Limited and shippers of the Okanagan such as Brown-Lander, Vernon, Sales Service. The meeting called upon Victoria to launch an immediate investigation under the "Sales and Consignment Act," which is under B.C. authority, and to press also for federal action under the "Combiner Investigation Act."

CHANGE B.C. GAME LAWS

VICTORIA (CP) — Flooding of sections of the province earlier in the year has brought about changes in the game regulations. Damage to nestings by flood waters is the reason one week has been cut from the pheasant season in the central interior. The season will extend from Oct. 16 to 24. Shooting of pheasants will be prohibited entirely in the Creston area, and there is a closed season on all upland game birds on North and South Pender Island.

Taking of muskrats except by trapping is prohibited throughout the province, and all beaver pelts must be tagged. The changes in the regulations also prohibit guides from taking more than two persons at any one time on a big-game hunt. Shooting is prohibited within one mile of the Hope-Princeton Highway, which is nearing completion. There are minor changes to the regulations regarding mainland season for blue and ruffed grouse, California quail and European partridge and grouse.

RIFLE SHOOT TO BE HELD ON SEPT. 12

BCD Rifle Association is Anticipating Large Number of Entries

Kelowna's invitational rifle shoot will be held on Sunday, September 12, it was decided by the B.C.D. Rifle Association after a few rounds with Sunday's wet weather. Last year 65 competitors came here from all parts of the Okanagan for the tournament. Committee-men hope that figure will be even larger this year.

Sunday's turnout was good in spite of the rain and promise of more. Several new members were on hand for a damp welcome. When soggy targets were collected, B. Franko was found to have a slight lead over Bert Chichester. Other scores were just so-so. The local club is choosing a team to work together in preparation for the invitational meet at Kamloops August 29.

ADANACS LOSE TO SUMMERLAND BY 11-8 SCORE

RUTLAND — Playing in water and mud that made good baseball impossible, the Adanacs lost their final game of the league season on Sunday, Summerland, by 11-8 after getting a 6-0 lead in the opening stanzas.

The game did not affect Rutland's standing, as they had third place clinched, but it was vital to Summerland, as it gave them fourth spot by their win. Actually they are in a three-way tie with Princeton and Hedley, with 5 wins and 7 losses, but by arrangement early in the season it had been agreed that such ties would be decided by the run average of the teams involved, to avoid further delays in a season already drawn out unduly by rained out games. On this basis Summerland is well ahead of the other two teams, and gets the fourth spot automatically.

The semi-finals for the B. C. Interior League will be played next Sunday when Rutland travels to Vernon for sudden death contests. Winners of next Sunday's games will play a two-out-of-three games series starting August 29. Last Sunday's game at the Summerland memorial park was billed for 2:30 p.m., but just at the starting time a deluge of rain, mixed with hail, descended on the countryside, and by water pouring into the natural amphitheatre of the park from all sides, and it resembled a lake in short order.

The teams agreed to return after 5 p.m. if weather permitted. The skies were cleared by then, but the field was still sodden, with pools of water at every base, and about half an inch of water all over the infield. In spite of conditions, the game was played and went nine innings. Rutland slugged the ball hard in the opening innings, while it was still possible to drive it, but later the boys had difficulty driving the ball, spheres out of the infield. Some of the players who indulged in slides (not always intentional) got well soaked.

Paul Bach chucked seven innings for the Adanacs, and had two bad innings, the third and seventh, but it was no pitchers battle, each side getting an abnormal number of hits due to the water slowing up the ball, and fielders failing to pick it up and throw fast enough to get the runner. They could not be charged as errors, but on a good field few would have been hits. George Clark was the only Summerland man to get an extra base hit while four Rutland batters connected for extra bases. In the eighth, when trailing 11-8, the Adanacs got three men with none away, but failed to get any of them home. In the ninth another rally netted two more runs, and the two pop flies and a strike out ended the agony.

REDCAPS TAKE TWILIGHT TITLE

The Rutland Redcaps won the Central Okanagan League (Twilight) championship on Thursday, August 5, when they took the third game of a two-out-of-three series from the Bluecaps 10-7. The Redcaps got away to a big lead in the first inning, when Maurice "Truitt" was unable to get into his stride, and several errors added to the trouble. John Lingor took over after seven runs were in, and held the Redcaps down to three additional scores for the remainder of the game. Paul Bach started on the mound for the victors, retiring in favor of Morio Koga in the fifth, after the Bluecaps had brought the score up to 3-7.

Local Boxla Team Secures Second Place By Defeating Armstrong 22-9

ARMSTRONG 9, KELOWNA 22

BOX lacrosse fandon let loose a wild cheer Tuesday night, followed by a sigh of relief. Over two months of hectic battling for second place in the final Interior Lacrosse Association senior B standing was settled.

Kelowna Bruins took over the runner-up spot standing up with a landslide 22-9 victory over Armstrong Eagles at the local box Tuesday. So now, at least three positions are settled for the playoffs due to start in a few days. Vernon is first, Kelowna second and Kamloops third.

But the thrill of the hunt before the league schedule is over, all goes on. Armstrong and Kelowna are still in the fight for the fourth and last playoff berth. They got that way last week when Armstrong dumped the Aces and it will all be thrashed out in a "natural" game these two teams meet tonight at Salmon Arm in a postponed fixture—the last league game of the season.

Opening Unsettled
Date of the playoffs start is still unsettled, according to league president Al Weddell, Kelowna. Certain representations are understood to have been made to him by both Armstrong and Salmon Arm. Both have indicated they would not be ready until next Monday if they should win the fourth playoff berth.

In that case—though Weddell wants the winner to start off the best-of-five series with Kelowna Saturday—the winner will not open the semi-finals here until Monday night.

On the other hand, Vernon and Kamloops may begin their three-out-of-five semi-finals tonight at Vernon with the second game at Kamloops Saturday.

Bruins, Tuesday night, were a compact, hardstriking unit easily 200 percent better than during the dismal showing at Vernon last week. They out-played, out-ran and out-checked the Eagles at almost every turn and didn't start letting up until on in the third quarter.

Three Fights
Roy Pinder, Bruins coach, led the scoring parade with five lovely goals on just as many shots, and also figured in some exciting moments in the last chapter. Pinder and Ernie Henderson, Eagles' defencemen, tangled mid-way through the finale to touch off the first of three fights.

While Referee Ciancone and Saunders were striving to put arc-light between the two scrappers, another duel almost wrecked the penalty box. Ernie Rampone and Bob Wallace, apparently, had no more love for each other than did Pinder for Henderson and gave Kelowna Lacrosse Club officials a few worried moments before order was restored. Rampone was cooler on a minor penalty and Wallace was serving a 10-minute misconduct.

Pinder was also the second man in the last scrap which flared up with less than two minutes to go. Pinder got the gate for another major penalty and Tony Bigler, a friendly fellow inside the penalty box as anyone would want to meet, was given a minor and a 10-minute misconduct for some vociferous lipspitting to Referee Ciancone. All ended peacefully, however, and the Armstrong boys said they'd be back in a few days for the semi-finals. Salmon Arm Aces said the same thing, when they were here last week.

BOX BITS — It used to be HERB CAPOZZI who was the people's "cherce". Now it's PHIL WEDDELL. Phil got a goal—his first of the season—and an assist Tuesday and the din could be heard in Rutland. PINDER'S five goals and one help was followed by ALP BALL with three and three, and BOB HETHERINGTON (playing one of his best games of the year) with four and an assist. JEFF MENICE and BOB WALLACE were the standouts for Armstrong in the scoring end, that is. BILL INNES net-minding was slightly terrific in the first half when Bruins were really pouring it on. Bruins went three quarters without a penalty (Eagles blamed the out a penalty). REG MARTIN was sidelined with rib bruises suffered in the game at Vernon Friday. Lacrosse director, BILL SEAR was about the only casualty in the penalty box scuffle, going down under the heap and coming up with a slight bruise to his right eye. At half-time ROSS OATMAN, lacrosse club president, made a presentation on behalf of the club to the newborn twins (in absentia) of AL DENEGRIE, scorekeeper and announcer.

UNDER-MANNED JUNIOR BOXLA TEAM DEFEATED

Kelowna Juniors Absorb 23-3 Licking from Vernon Squad

An under-manned junior boxla squad followed in their older brother's footsteps Monday night, absorbing a 23-3 licking at Vernon.

Kelowna juveniles, however, maintained their unbeaten pace by trouncing the Vernon juveniles 16-5, also Monday night.

Arriving at the Civic Arena with only eight regular players, the Kelowna juveniles prevailed on three of the juvenile boys who had just completed their game to stay in strip—Doug Simpson, Joe Giordano and Ron Fraser.

Simpson and Giordano paced along nicely in the higher class and between the two of them—Doug got two—they scored all of the Orchard City goals.

Neville Thomson, Jack Love, Ray Giordano, George Wilderman, Ron Gee, Jack Weddell, Bill Kane, Howard Hardie and Don Catechople were the regular junior players.

Wilcox's Going Leaves Director Appointment Question Unsettled

Who Will Be the Departmental Recreation Head for Valley?

Bill Wilcox, chief instructor for Pro-Rec in the Okanagan for several years, has taken up a new post as recreational director at Kimberley, B.C., about 35 miles north of Cranbrook in the East Kootenay valley.

What the department of physical education and recreation has in mind in the matter of replacement, if any, is not known immediately. Meanwhile, Augie Ciancone, who assisted Wilcox, is continuing in the capacity of Pro-Rec instructor for the valley.

Early this year, Ernie Lee, provincial director of the department of physical education and recreation, indicated an appointment of a recreational director would be made for this district.

No Definite Word
Over the period of months, nothing definite has been given out by them, though many men, some of them known here, have been rumored as probable for the job. Now there seems to be some hints that the proposed position of recreational director will be tied in with the arena management.

These reports, however, lack confirmation. Ciancone was unable to throw any light.

Augie took advantage of the opportunity to mention that at least 10 of his Kelowna and district boxers will be taking part in a Knights of Pythias card at Penticton on the Labor Day week-end. They are: Moraldo Rantucci, 135 pounds; Andy Araki, 147; Lloyd Martin, 118; Bob Maize, 112; Nick Markin, 112; George Wilderman, 112; George Fenton, 165; Kaname Araki, 126; Stan Taneda, 118; Lawrence Kneller, 135.

It is thought that another Westbanker, also was deemed a possible in the 147-pound class.

OLIVER HERE FOR RED SOX TILT SUNDAY

Another fling at the waning baseball season will be given fans this Sunday when Oliver, the team that won the Okanagan Valley (International) Baseball League pennant, makes an appearance here against the Kelowna Red Sox, who ended in a tie for second place, just off the pace set by Oliver.

Both Oliver and the Sox were knocked out of the playoffs by Bridgeport and Onak, respectively. Sunday's game here will be played at Recreation Park, Manager-Coch Dick Murray said.

Specially written for The Courier by DOUGLAS MURRAY

Hockey is easily Canada's most popular sport. So much so that it appears the Dominion is to have two hockey "Halls of Fame."

The Canadian Amateur Hockey Association and the National Hockey League, in a joint meeting representing the governing bodies of professional and amateur hockey in Canada and the United States, placed the official Hall in Kingston, Ont., with the idea of "perpetuating the memory of the men who have done so much to develop nationally and internationally Canada's great winter sport, hockey."

Anyway, that's how it's explained in a book entitled, "International Hockey Hall of Fame."

Halifax, however, doesn't like the idea of being slighted. Mayor Gee Ahern, a former stick-handler and sports editor, insists that hockey was played in Halifax as far back as 1779, while Kingston can only claim to have played it since 1885. Halifax, therefore, is studying two possible locations for a Hall of Fame to rival the recognized Hall at Kingston. Ahern says the port city's Hall will open in 1949.

James Sutherland, one of the pillars on which hockey was built, says, on behalf of the Kingston Hall, that no feud exists between the two cities. Sutherland adds that some 30 years ago he coupled Halifax and Kingston as the only centres where hockey was first played.

What the Books Say

We thought the argument could easily be rectified with some research. Pulling two huge encyclopedias from the wall, we found that ice hockey, in these massive volumes at least, is just an offspring of field hockey, which is played with a curved stick and a ball. We also learned that this was one of the games banned in England in the 14th century as being detrimental to English archery.

One knowledge-filled book condescended to say that ice hockey, as played on ice with an oval piece of rubber called a "puck," was rapidly gaining popularity. We were most gratified to read that. As we read on it becomes increasingly clear that if the Hall of Fame controversy lasts long enough, eventually some backwoods fanlet in England is going to put in a bid for a Hall of Fame. We abandoned the "big books" forthwith.

In further research, we came across a card from a box of pop-corn with the title, "Hockey-Yes-terday." But this prominently displayed a large mass of men in army uniforms playing the game. We decided to make no use of this information in case a certain country should ban hockey as being originated by military factions and therefore not conducive to world peace.

We finally came to the conclusion that we'd better stay out of the Hall of Fame controversy before we did it more harm than good. After all, there are literally thousands of the most important Halls of Fame—the hearts and minds of juvenile pucksters who worship the ice stars skate on.

Private Health Insurance Companies Now Faced With Immediate Decision Of Continuing in Insurance Field

British Columbia's $3,000,000 Hospital Insurance scheme to become effective next Jan. 1, has brought private health insurance plans throughout the province face to face with an immediate decision affecting their continued existence.

The government ruled private companies could continue to operate if their benefits equalled those offered by the government. August was named as the month for these private schemes to register. They were called to give details of their provisions so their members could receive exemption from the compulsory government premium.

Dr. J. M. Hershey, provincial Hospital Insurance Commissioner, announced that the time limit now is up and that few private companies qualified for continued operation.

Simultaneously, W. G. Welsford, executive director of the Blue Cross Hospital Service, announced his non-profit organization would fold on Dec. 31.

Another private scheme, the doctor-operated Medical Services Association, which is a form of group insurance covering medical costs, said it would continue.

Few of the plans operating prior to last February when the government plan was enacted will be able to offer as great a treatment and hospital coverage at a low cost.

The Blue Cross operating now for four years has enrolled 100,000 members. It offers coverage for single persons at $15 a year, and for family men at $33. The family insurance covers for the wife and dependent children under 19 years. The benefits offered are limited: hospital care for a maximum of 30 days, only dependent children are recognized, and maternity care is covered only 12 months after entry into the plan.

In comparison, the government premium amounts to $15 for single, self-supporting persons, $30 for heads of families with one dependent and $33 with more than one dependent (not only children, but relatives as well). Its hospital term has no limit and includes such medical treatments as X-rays, dental laboratory services and maternity care.

No Adjustment
The government was prepared to merge these private schemes into theirs and still allow the companies to exist and offer some of their special features, such as medical protection.

But Health Minister George Pearson said no adjustment would be allowed if the private scheme was sub-standard to the government's. Commissioner Hershey's announcement foresaw an extended drive to register all persons in the province. The collection of premiums will begin in October, he said.

He also announced that all subscribers to private schemes who have not yet heard from their companies, "may now assume those schemes have not been approved," and they should now register with the government.

During August, the clinic will visit HMCS Naden at Victoria on the 18th and 19th; Summerville on the 23rd; Penticton on the 24th and 25th and Oliver on the 26th. September clinics will be held at Duncan on the 7th; Victoria 8th and 9th; Yonbou on the 10th; Chilliwack, 20th and Sardis on the 21st. October clinics will be held at Vernon on the 4th; Kelowna 5th and 6th; and Osoyoos on the 7th.

BOY SCOUT COLUMN

The August bulletin from provincial headquarters reports a big increase in membership for both Boy Scout and Wolf Cub groups in B.C., as at June 30, 1948. The Scout total is now 4,127 as against 3,497 a year ago, while the Cub total stands at 6,008, an increase of 501 over the previous year. Sea Scouts have increased from 47 in 1947 to 138 in 1948. The grand total of Scouts and Cubs in B.C. is given as 10,411 with a total of 935 leaders.

Recent awards given by the Governor-General as Chief Scout have been the Medal of Merit to Scoutmaster Roland Gale, Ocean Falls and to District Secretary H. R. Denison of Vernon. Both awards are for especially good work for the Boy Scout movement. A silver Cross was given to Scout Boy Arthur Clifford, of Terrace, for gallantry, with considerable risk in rescuing his younger brother from their burning home.

The 1948 Akela course for Cub leaders is now in progress at Camp Byng, under District Commissioner F. J. Bower, of the Similkameen district. Cub leaders from Allenby and Princeton are in attendance, but we have no word of any others from the Interior. It is possible that next year the camp will be held in the Interior.

The possibility of a winter Gilwell is being considered by headquarters. Scout Leaders able to get away in the winter months and not in summer are advised to drop a line to H.Q. and suggest a suitable time.

In order to assure that troops and packs get away to a good start again in September it is advisable that group committees should meet toward the end of this month, to discuss plans for the new season with the Scoutmaster and Cubmaster, or see that replacements in leaders have dropped out. Scouts and Cub Scouts are advised to drop a line to H.Q. and suggest a suitable time.

A report on the camp held by the First Kelowna Troop would make an interesting reading, and possibly the Scoutmaster or assistant could drop a story about it into The Courier. Winfield's camp at Carr's Landing should also be good for a write-up. News of this is of interest to all other troops, and would be appreciated for this column or under the troop's own heading if preferred.

Lord Rowland, Chief Scout of the British Commonwealth and Empire, has received the award of the Silver Buffalo from the Boy Scouts of America for noteworthy service to boyhood.

Scouts Exchange Visits
Across Canada this summer Boy Scouts from this country are visiting brother Scouts in the United States and vice-versa, while in Great Britain more than 1,700 Scouts are camping with Scouts in 12 countries, including France, Holland, Norway, Belgium, Luxembourg, Austria and Iceland.

Rover Scouts Meeting
Rover Scouts, the older members of the Boy Scout movement, are holding or planning their annual camp gatherings in Canada. British Columbia Rovers are holding a Moot at Jezzallin Lake on August 15 and 16.

Labor Day week-end will see the Rovers of Ontario and the Maritime provinces conducting Moots at Blue Springs, Ont., and Moncton, N.B., respectively. The Moot at Moncton will be the first such Maritime gathering and will be attended by Maj.-Gen. D. C. Spry, C.B.E., D.S.O., Chief Executive Commissioner of Canada's Boy Scouts.

M. J. Caldwell greets Scouts. "The future of civilization depends in large measure on the type of training and leadership given to the youth of democratic nations. We in this country are fortunate in our freedom from compulsory youth movements which in some lands attempt to mould the citizenry in a single pattern. This, however, brings such great responsibility to organizations like the Boy Scouts Association that they require the support of all of us."

"I note that the Boy Scouts Association is celebrating its fortieth anniversary. May I take this opportunity to extend my congratulations on this long period of service, and to wish its members and supporters even greater success in the years ahead."

Bank of Nova Scotia in New Premises

New Bank Premises Improve Main Street And Are Radical Change in Building Design

RAPID growth in the commercial and residential area of Kelowna was the reason the Bank of Nova Scotia opened up a branch in the orchard city, and the new banking premises, recently completed, has added one more touch toward improving the business section of Bernard Avenue.

The Bank of Nova Scotia this week is extending a cordial invitation to local residents to inspect the new quarters. Located at 282 Bernard Avenue, the newly completed building is a radical change in design from most banks. The glass frontage, measuring 25 feet wide, gives a maximum of light inside the premises, and the canopy at the top, prevents the brilliant sunshine from over-heating the office during the warm summer days.

The office area has been increased by 1,200 square feet, providing plenty of room for employees and customers. The two tellers' enclosures are of the new and efficient low style. Counters have been extended; the ceiling is sound absorbing and the floor is of modern asphalt tile. The bright, fluorescent light makes the office pleasant and cheerful.

Care has also been taken in choosing the color scheme. The upper part of the walls have been painted a pale green, while the lower part is of birch panelling.

The opening of the branch office of the Bank of Nova Scotia marks a major step forward in the town's industrial and commercial development. The newly-opened branch is under the management of P. H. Meek, who has a wide background of banking experience. Mr. Meek's office is located at the end of the building, and he is able to interview customers with the maximum of convenience.

Mr. Meek's right-hand assistant, is L. C. Lavery, who came here from New Westminster, to take over the position of accountant. Other members of the staff, all local people, are Miss Victoria Sperle, Miss Jean Montgomery, and Charles Rigby.

Mr. Meek first started in the banking business at Canning, Nova Scotia, which is in the centre of the Maritime fruit growing district. After being stationed at various places across Canada, he was appointed manager of the local branch in view of his experience in the eastern fruit growing country.

Careful Expansion
The decision of the Bank of Nova Scotia to open a branch in Kelowna, is in line with its policy of careful, well-planned expansion to provide banking facilities where sound commercial growth warrants new branches. Officials of the bank point out that Kelowna's population has an estimated increase of 5,000 over the 1941 census figure, and that this growth has been founded mainly on a continuing expansion of agricultural production in the Kelowna area. Present into Quebec and Ontario about the time of Confederation. In the eighties, the Bank "went West" following the fast-widening frontiers of Canadian business, opening its branches in the new regions of the growing nation practically as soon as railway steel linked them to the other centres.

Today the Bank of Nova Scotia is one of Canada's greatest financial institutions with branches from coast to coast in the Dominion and extending to England, the United States, Newfoundland, Jamaica, Cuba, Puerto Rico and the Dominican Republic.

NORTH OKANAGAN VALLEY NEWS ROUNDUP

PROBABLY THE PROVINCE'S oldest native-born resident, Mrs. Margaret McLean, senior citizen of Kamloops by every standard, died on August 7 at her home at the north end of the North Kamloops bridge. She was 101 years, nine months and 23 days. Born October 15, 1846, at the Hudson Bay Company's Fort Kamloops, she had lived continuously in the Kamloops district since 1864.

THREE SECTIONS of the Fruitlands Irrigation District's flume were swept away during a cloudburst in the Harper Ranch-Clearwaters Ranch area on Westside, in the Kamloops district, on Tuesday of last week. The day before, a C.N. engine and 10 freight cars were derailed when a bridge near Blue River was washed out by a cloudburst. On the Friday before that, C. P. mainline traffic was halted by a cloudburst-caused washout and slide near Spence's Bridge.

CHARGE OF MANSLAUGHTER preferred against J. A. McKinley, Kamloops, in connection with the highway death of Miss Mary Elizabeth Beames, Penticton, last July 2, was dismissed a week ago Monday during his preliminary hearing by Supendary Magistrate D. W. Rowlands in district police court, Kamloops. The Magistrate said insufficient evidence had been produced to warrant putting McKinley on trial.

MODERN NEW PLANT of Armstrong Lockers was formally opened and ready for business at Armstrong last Thursday.

MORE PEOPLE, MORE FUN, more Western atmosphere and good weather all contributed to make a slam-bang success of the two-day Vernon Days celebrations at Vernon last Wednesday and Thursday. Charming Irene Chorney, with nearly 30,000 more votes than runner-up Pat Grey, was chosen as queen of the 1949 Vernon Days.

A MILLION DOLLAR SCHOOL bylaw will be presented to Vernon City Council and Coldstream Municipal Council by Vernon School District 22. It is hoped to have voting on the bylaw by September or October. Expropriation proceedings for the site of the new elementary school in northeast Vernon are under way.

SHIPMENTS OF CREAMERY butter to Kamloops, Williams Lake, Ashcroft and Princeton districts has been discontinued by the North Okanagan Creamery Association (NOCA). The reason is to conserve stocks of butter for the Okanagan. Approximately 30,000 pounds of butter were being shipped yearly to the districts now shut off.

AFTER 40 YEARS IN THE OLD plant on 32nd Stret, the Vernon News has moved to a new, modern building at 3303 Tronson Ave. A new, automatic roll type press is now in use, stepping up the output at press time by 600 per cent.

NATIONAL HOUSING ACT

Q. I have decided to remodel the house on my farm and I want to know if it's possible to get a National Housing Act loan to finance the job?

A. No, the National Housing Act does not provide for loans to farmers for repairing, remodeling or installing modern conveniences in existing houses because such financial assistance is already provided in the Farm Improvement Loans Act. This Act was passed by Parliament in 1944 and is administered by the Department of Finance. Under its provisions, the Dominion Government guarantees loans made by chartered banks to farmers to make improvements to a farm dwelling, such as: Repairing and remodeling; making additions, painting and decorating; installing modern conveniences including a farm electric system, hot and cold running water for a modern kitchen and bathroom, refrigeration units, improved heating equipment, a septic tank for sewage disposal and for other improvements. For full particulars regarding Farm Improvement Loan Act loans, you should see your bank manager or write to: Supervisor Farm Improvement Loans Act, Department of Finance, Ottawa, Canada.

Q. I believe that footings for a house financed under the National Housing Act must conform to certain standards. Can you tell me what these standards are?

A. All footings must be of concrete and must rest on solid undisturbed soil. They must also be of sufficient width and thickness to spread the load safely upon the soil. The thickness of concrete footings must be not less than the projection of the footing beyond the face of the wall above with a minimum thickness of six inches. Footings, of course, should not be placed on frozen soil, not placed at all during freezing weather unless protected adequately against frost action. Footings are not required where the bearing is solid rock.

Q. I am financing the construction of an apartment house of 20 units under the National Housing Act. Will it be necessary for me to give a chattel mortgage on the property?

A. Yes, except in the province of Quebec. With this one exception, a chattel mortgage must be given in addition to the original mortgage) for any rental housing project containing more than 10 family housing units. The chattel mortgage covers all chattels, the removal of which would impair the value of the property which has been accepted as security for the loan. These may include such items as gas and electric stoves and refrigeration equipment.

Q. What is a "completion loan" under the National Housing Act?

A. A completion loan is one which is advanced on completion of the building. In other words, no advances on the loan are made during construction.

Q. What is the maximum amount that can be borrowed to build a house under the National Housing Act?

A. The maximum loan is $8500, with the exception that loans on ultimate four-room bungalows will be limited to $5000; on each four-room unit of a duplex to $4800. Unfinished rooms, such as those occurring in 1½-storey dwellings will be recognized.

(Questions on house financing and construction may be directed to this column and every effort will be made to answer them at an early date.—Editor.)

MALE CLAIMS JUST AS GOOD HOUSEKEEPER

WASHAGO, Ont. (CP) — Frank J. Cox, who describes himself as "as good a housekeeper as any woman," feels justified in boasting when he looks over his daily wash, ironing and neatly-made beds.

The 28-year-old Mimico, Ont., man finds housekeeping chores all in the day's work as he runs a tourist cabin here in the Muskoka area without the help of a feminine helper. He spent five years in the services and when he came back to Canada with three wounds he found he couldn't hold a regular job in the city. He put all his gratuities into the camp and had to learn the housekeeping business by trial and error.

N.H.A. DESIGN-OF-THE-MONTH

FUTURE SECOND FLOOR
A 1,160 square feet.

Under the terms of the National Housing Act, 1944, financial assistance is available to Canadians wishing to build new houses such as the one illustrated. Complete construction drawings for this design, known as Plan No. 47-22, are available from Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation at minimum cost.

MANY ROOMING HOUSE PERMITS ARE GRANTED

Since the city started checking up several months ago on the number of unlicensed rooming houses operating in the city, City Fathers have had scores of rooming house permits to deal with during recent weeks.

Some time ago council adopted the policy that all rooming houses must be inspected by the sanitary and fire inspectors before a licence is granted. Last Monday night, council authorized trade licences to the following individuals:

Darwin Challenger, Kenogon Cabins, eight units, 1750 Vernon road; Thomas M. Roberts, 722 Burne Avenue, three rooms to rent; J. H. Weidner, 672 Cadder Avenue, three rooms to rent; M. E. Flintoff, 1010 Laurier Avenue, three rooms to rent; A. A. Blackwood, 774 Fuller Avenue, three basement rooms, temporary permit; Consuelo Wanless, 1035 Bernard Avenue, three rooms to rent; M. E. Flintoff, 1010 Laurier Avenue, three rooms to rent.

Application from Mrs. Blanche Wieg, 786 Lawson Avenue, for three rooms to rent, was referred to the sanitary inspector.

A trade licence for a building contractor, was granted Harold O. Schoening, 2359 Abbott Street.

MAN CHARGED WITH RUSTLING

A June Springs resident is to appear in district police court this afternoon on a charge of rustling. Police allege he shot a calf belonging to Martin Casorso, took it home and canned the meat.

TENNIS STARS COMING HERE

Two of the most outstanding players in Canadian tennis circles will be here next Wednesday for a series of exhibition matches at the Kelowna Lawn Tennis Club courts on Rosemead Ave.

They are: Walt Stohlberg, who was on the Canadian Davis Cup team this year, and Jimmy Bardsley, who has been up among the top-ranking stars for a number of years. Both men come from Vancouver.

Lorne Main, Vancouver, originally was to have appeared with Stohlberg, but due to his taking part in a junior tournament at the coast, Bardsley is coming in his place. Main is the present Canadian junior champion.

Local officials plan holding singles, doubles and possibly mixed doubles exhibitions that Wednesday afternoon.

FRUIT CAR SHIPMENTS BELOW 1947

Due to the lateness of the 1948 crop season, car shipments are far below those of last year.

Mr. Loyd said total of 263 cars went out of the valley last week, to bring the total to 1,145 for the number of cars shipped so far this year. Compared with last year, 1,957 cars had left the valley, and in 1946, 1,758.

Peaches are now starting to move in volume he stated, while Bartlett pears will be starting this week-end.

REMOVE BARN
City Council issued an order that a barn at the rear of the Boyce property on Bernard Ave. be removed immediately.

ROAD REPORT

Following is a summary of the road report issued this week by the British Columbia Government Travel Bureau.

Vancouver Island Highways
No. 1—Victoria to Campbell River—good highway all the way 4 miles north of Lantzville and 4 miles north of Parksville under construction with traffic controlled but quite passable.

No. 1A—Parksville to Alberni—(39 miles) 15 miles of reconstruction in the centre of this stretch and reasonable caution over gravel sections suggested. Observe speed and caution signs; quite passable.

Victoria to Jordan River—(45 miles) 28 miles hard surface, balance good gravel.

Victoria to Sidney—(17 miles) excellent hard surface. Gravel roads to Cowichan Lake. Forbidden Plateau, upper Campbell Lake and Sayward reported fair to good condition.

Longbeach Highway No. 7
(84 miles) — Open through to Harrison Hot Springs and in very fair to good condition. (Agassiz-Rosses Ferry not yet opened but expected to resume service in a few days. Connects Highways No. 1 and No. 7.)

Trans-Canada Highway No. 1
Vancouver to Hope—first class. Hope Spences Bridge—fair to good all the way. Road through Canyon OK with occasional slow areas where sharp turns are being eliminated and other improvements carried on.

Spences Bridge to Kamloops—Good. Kamloops to Big Bend—paved for first 20 miles then gravel in good condition. Considerable reconstruction but very passable all the way.

Big Bend Highway
Revelstoke to Golden—102 miles. This is a gravel road, several sections of which are under revision and reconstruction. In very dry weather some sections are apt to be slightly wash-boarded but the public works department has kept the road in good condition.

Cariboo Road No. 2
Cache Creek to Prince George—this is a gravel road, several sections of which are under revision and reconstruction. In very dry weather some sections are apt to be slightly wash-boarded but the public works department has kept the road in good condition.

Southern Trans-Provincial No. 3
Very negotiable from Osoyoos to Nelson. There is a little broken paving around Grand Forks and some reconstruction work but generally the road is in fair to good condition. At time of writing the road "over the hump" between Cascade and Rossland is well graded. This very scenic section should not be detoured if present surface standards can be maintained.

Road from Nelson to Kelowna should be driven carefully. From Kootenay Bay south to Creston there is a good stretch of new black top but this is only carried half way as yet and the road into Creston is gravelled and while graded, may be variable.

Creston eastward through Fernie is under construction in several places and the highway should be driven with due regard for caution signs. It is quite safe, however, and passable.

Kootenay-Columbia Highway No. 4
Cranbrook to Golden—gravel surface is good and hard surface stretches have been largely restored. Caution signs are apt to mean pot holes so slow down when you see them. This road has been heavily used this summer with few complaints. It is the best route to Banff and Jasper from the south.

Okanagan Highway No. 5
This road is OK from Osoyoos to the Grand Junction with the Trans-Canada Highway. Some reconstruction but the surface is good. A very scenic route.

Northern Trans-Provincial Highway No. 16
See Spring Road report for general outline. Dusty if the weather is dry but those who do not expect a number one highway through the wilderness will have no difficulty; travellers reports this summer have been very complimentary.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

HIGH WATER
The Editor, Kelowna Courier:
Dear Sir:

I wish to draw the attention of those in charge of the deplorable water situation which has raised considerably of late in the south area between Pendozi and North St.

It has become very grievous to many residents in these areas by being surrounded with water for the last two months with an ever increasing water level.

We believe that we are entitled to a little consideration so as to alleviate these unfortunate circumstances by providing a permanent outlet system which would prevent the submerging of this area at present and also in the future.

Hoping our appeal will be cordially considered.

Your truly,
GEORGE VASSEUR.

Farmer Treats Pullets Right

Boxla Playoffs Open Next Week

Mrs. Grace Harrison, 1923 Pendozi St., put six normal looking pullet eggs in boiling water for lunch one day this week.

When she, her husband, Ernest Harrison, and her father, Mr. Day, sat down for lunch, they found all six eggs were double-yolked.

She said J. L. Kennedy, South Kelowna, who supplies her with eggs, must be "talking turkey" to his pullets.

Alwyn D. Weddell, Kelowna, president of the Interior Lacrosse Association, this morning advised the Courier the senior B playoffs would not start until Monday or Tuesday of next week.

Kelowna will entertain the winner of tonight's Armstrong at Salmon Arm postponed league game while Kamloops will go to Vernon. (See previous story on Page 4.)

SWIMMERS AT OK. MISSION PASS EXAMS

Members of Red Cross Swim Classes Examined by Kelowna Instructor

STIFF TESTS

Awards May Be Given at Junior or High School Regatta In Near Future

OKANAGAN MISSION — Members of the Red Cross swim classes at Okanagan Mission were examined last Sunday morning by John Kitson, of Kelowna, who is the Southern Interior representative of Royal Life Saving Society (R.L.S.S.) and local examiner for Southern Okanagan.

The day was chilly but the rain held off during that period. All contestants passed, doing exceptionally well in spite of chattering teeth and shivering limbs as they have had only one month of training. Junior class was comprised of the following eight children: Pat Graves, Edward Luckey, Marlon Karpens, Lillian Hawkins, George Hawkins, Larry Hawkins, Bryan Wilson, Terry Wilson. They performed: diving and swimming, 30 yards; back swim with feet, 15 yards; treading water, two minutes; throw life line 15 feet; life saving with assistance of oar, etc., and a written exam.

Senior class consisted of a stiff exam; 100 yards breast or side; 100 yards back and 100 yards crawl, making 300 yards continuous swim; 25 yards on back with arms only; 50 yards on back with legs only; continuous swim; surface dive of 15 feet under water swim; shallow dive and running dive; tread water 10 minutes; artificial respiration; tread swimmers tow; disrobe in water; shirt-tail life saving; leaving lifeline, 30 feet; demonstration for relief of cramps; and a written exam.

The following seniors all passed well: Pamela Drake, Nancy Drake, Lois Wilson, Roger Hilliard, Rigmore, Helen Nora, Timothy Thomason.

It is hoped the awards will be handed out either at the Junior Regatta or High School Regatta. Several of the Boy Scouts missed the exam as they were enroute to camp so will likely take it at the High School Regatta.

Maj.-Gen. F. L. Keller, who is president of the Red Cross Swimming Society, was also present, and the local instructor was Miss Kay Sealey.

QUIET MONTH

Value of Property Stolen During Past Month Amounts to $294

Police court fines and costs during the month of July amounted to $892 compared with $980 during the corresponding month last year, according to the monthly report submitted to City Council Monday night by Sgt. R. B. McKay, local police chief.

A total of 65 prosecutions came before the presiding magistrate, and only two cases were dismissed. Heading the list of prosecutions were 17 individuals who were arraigned under the motor vehicle act. Prosecutions under the Indian Act, totalling 11, came next, while juvenile delinquents came a close third with ten cases.

Value of property stolen last month amounted to $294, of which $143 was recovered. This is exclusive of bicycles and motor vehicles. Damage sustained as result of traffic accidents amounted to $1,048.

Police were kept fairly busy checking on transients in the city. A total of 63 individuals attracted attention and were checked. Other highlights of Sgt. McKay's report were: petty complaints received and investigated, 44; business premises found insecure at night, 27; street lights out of order and reported, 35; fires attended following alarm, 1; children lost, searched for and found, 3; traffic accidents, 11; persons injured in traffic accidents, 2; cyclists warned regarding minor infractions, 15; motorists warned regarding minor infractions, 35; bicycles reported stolen or lost, 18; bicycles recovered and restored to owners, 15.

Commenting on conditions generally, Sgt. McKay said "... conditions continued to remain satisfactory with no incident of note to report on. Patrols have been continued both day and night with attention being given to traffic, business premises at night, vacant houses, dance halls, pool rooms, buildings under construction, etc."

TIMELY RECIPES

Heat of August days seems to pile up in deep clouds enveloping everyone. Unfortunately, it is just at this time that there is canning to do, in addition to regular meals, and the kitchen gets almost unbearably hot and humid.

One answer to this problem lies in cool meals and appetizers that give one that cool feeling. These may be crisp, green salads, cold meats and chilled desserts. In addition to producing the effect of coolness at mealtime, many of these foods require little heat in preparation, or may be made at a time when the stove is on and then kept a day or so before serving, thus eliminating the necessity of an over-heated kitchen every day.

The following cool desserts are suggested for hot August days.

Delmonico Fudding

4 tablespoons cornstarch, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup cold milk, 2 1/2 cups hot milk, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla, 1/2 cup of jam or jelly, 2 egg whites, 4 tablespoons fine sugar.

Mix cornstarch, sugar and salt and blend with cold milk. Add slowly to hot milk in top of double boiler and stir constantly until mixture thickens. Cook 20 to 30 minutes, stirring occasionally. Remove from heat, add vanilla and pour into a baking dish. Spread with jam or jelly and cover with meringue made from the two egg whites and 4 tablespoons of sugar. Place dish in a pan of hot water and oven-poach in a moderate oven, 350 degrees F. until meringue is brown. Serves six.

Crumb Berry Pudding

1/2 cup fine dry bread crumbs, 1/2 cup cake-cooking rolled oats, 1 cup sour milk, 1/2 cup shortening, 1 cup brown sugar, 1/2 cup sifted all-purpose flour, 1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder, 1/4 teaspoon soda, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 cup berries (strawberries, blueberries or raspberries.)

Soak crumbs and rolled oats in sour milk for 1 1/2 hours. Cream together the shortening and sugar. Sift together the flour, baking powder, soda and salt. Add berries to dry ingredients and add alternately with crumb mixture to the creamed shortening and sugar mixture. Blend thoroughly. Fill an 8"x8" cake pan or individual moulds two-thirds full. Bake in a moderate hot oven, 375 degrees F., individual moulds, 25 to 30 minutes, cake pan 40 to 45 minutes. Serve cold with sweetened crushed berries. Serves eight.

Quick Caramel Custard

4 eggs, 1-3 cup white sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 3 cups milk, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla, 2-3 cup light brown sugar.

Beat eggs till light. Add sugar and salt, blending well. Scald milk and slowly add to egg mixture. Add vanilla. Stir custard mixture until well blended. Sift brown sugar and pack it in the bottom of one large baking dish or individual moulds and pour the custard on top of it. Place the baking dish in a pan of hot water and oven poach in a moderate oven, 350 degrees F. until custard is firm and a silver knife inserted in the centre comes out clean, about one hour for large mould and 45 minutes for individual moulds. Chill. Invert to serve. Serves six.

COOK RESIGNS

City Council Monday night received the resignation of Madeline Loeven, who has been a cook at the David Lloyd Jones Home. The resignation will take effect September 20 and the matter was referred to Alderman W. T. L. Roadhouse.

Mrs. G. V. Smith, 592 Grenfell Avenue, made application to the city at Monday night's council meeting for sewer service. She will be informed that the service will be given as soon as possible.

REMOVE PAPER

Fire Chief Fred Gore informed City Council Monday night that the Jaycees had not fully complied with the request to remove the waste paper in the horse stable behind the Fire Hall. Council will send another letter to the Junior Chamber.

BUILDS HER OWN HOUSE

HAMLET, N.C. (AP) — Mrs. J. H. Johnson is planning to move into a new home in September. But Mrs. Johnson, 58 years old and a grandmother, is building the house herself.

She started about two years ago with nothing but a plan in her head and willingness to work. She even bought a concrete block machine to make her own building blocks. After manufacturing a supply of blocks, she went to work on the house. Now it is rapidly nearing completion.

Mrs. Johnson said her housing project got under way when she grew tired of paying rent. She suddenly realized she had been paying rent for 37 years, she said, and it was time to stop.

She did all the work herself except putting on the roof. The long rafters were too much for her to handle — she's only five feet, two inches tall. So she got a neighbor to help hold them while she drove the nails.

Not Finished Yet

There's still work to be done before the house is ready to live in. Finishing touches on the roof, windows to be installed and doors to be hung.

Asked how she plans to finish the interior of her house, she said: "Well, I think I'll plaster it."

"By yourself?"

"Why not? I've gone this far with it."

Mrs. Johnson's new house measures 40 feet by 40 feet. It has four large rooms, a bathroom, three closets and a hall. There is an open ing in the hall for a floor furnace. She already has built the chimney.

She estimates the house has cost her $750 and two years of hard work.

But it was worth it," she said, "because I really wanted a place to live."

Royalty Watches Intently at Olympic Event

The intent expression on the face of HIS MAJESTY KING GEORGE VI is eloquent of the interest he takes in the event of the Olympic Games at Wembley. King George and Queen Elizabeth are shown with their son-in-law, the DUKE OF EDINBURGH, left, looking on from the Royal box at Empire Stadium as a track record is broken at the XIV Olympiad. It was Queen Elizabeth's 48th birthday.

Judges Have Difficult Task Naming Winners In Rutland Flower Show

RUTLAND — The annual flower show under the auspices of the Women's Institute on Wednesday last in the Community Hall was a successful affair. The entries were of high standard and more numerous than in previous years, made the task of the judges most difficult.

Nat May, of the Summerland Experimental Farm, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Ennis, of Rutland, acted as judges. Dr. Gordon Wilson, of Kelowna, declared the show open with a few congratulatory remarks regarding the efforts of the Institute and the high class of the entries.

Following is a list of the prize-winners:

SWIVEL CHAIR FARMING

By "AGRICOLA"

Visitors come to the Summerland Experimental Station for a great variety of reasons. Some of the local residents spend an evening at the station almost every week throughout the summer, testing their skill on the 18 hole grass putting green. Religious and fraternal organizations use the log cabin and picnic facilities for meetings of their organizations in ideal surroundings. Growers come singly and in groups to see at first hand the result of orchard and vegetable experiments. Tourists come from far and wide to see for themselves the beauty of the ornamental grounds.

Of perhaps even greater importance than all of these, is the steadily increasing flow of scientists from distant lands who come to this station to discuss with the staff the results of research work. For example, during the past few weeks there have been visitors from Nigeria, South Africa, California, Ohio, England, New Zealand and Northern Ireland.

Mr. A. C. Beattie, director of agriculture for Nigeria came to secure information regarding tree fruits of fruit and vegetable culture which might have practical application in Nigeria. He was so impressed with the beauty of the Okanagan that he is thinking seriously of returning to this area on his retirement. He dreams of a small orchard with enough interesting work to keep his mind and body active and enough financial returns to help out a not-too-large pension.

Mr. Vvan der Wilgen, chairman of the South Africa Deciduous Fruit Marketing Board, came largely to study the methods of operation followed by B.C. Tree Fruits Limited. However, he was keenly interested in the results of fruit juice and puree investigations conducted in the local fruit products laboratory.

Roy K. Cole of Whittier, California, has charge of agricultural relations for Safeway Stores. He was especially interested in the possibilities for expansion of the apricot, peach and pear canning industry in the south Okanagan.

John Bodger, senior partner in the firm of Bodger Seeds Limited, El Monte, Calif., was investigating the flower seed growing possibilities of the Okanagan Valley. He was amazed at the wide variety of trees, shrubs and flowers which thrive in this area.

L. S. Edison, of Dayton, Ohio, is a free lance journalist gathering information for articles dealing with the industries and natural resources of British Columbia.

Gerald Woodward, a native son of B.C., has become a large scale producer of vegetable crops in the Vale of Evesham, England. He has over 150 acres in vegetables in addition to three acres for house crops. He was keenly interested in the Signet and Sugawara varieties originated at the Summerland station. The dark red color, uniform shape and comparatively small size of the fruits on these varieties indicate that they may prove satisfactory for the discriminating British housewife.

G. G. Taylor, of Auckland, New Zealand, is spending a year in North America, gathering information concerning the culture, processing and marketing of fruits and vegetables. He thinks that the Friday pack may prove suitable for handling some varieties of New Zealand apples.

J. A. Young, who hails from Belfast, is at present on the staff of the British High Commissioner at Ottawa. He is in effect an agricultural attaché. His job is to study trends in Canadian agriculture and to report to his own government any new developments which may be of interest and value to farmers and fruit growers in Britain.

While such men gather valuable information from the local experimental station, they also bring new ideas and a fund of experience with them. Thus the fruit and vegetable industries of British Columbia gain greatly from this exchange of scientific knowledge.

ELECTRICAL USAGE UP 25 PER CENT

Electrical power used by the City of Kelowna during the month of July showed a 25 per cent increase over that of the same month a year ago. Alderman R. Prosser reported to the City Council on Monday night. Mr. Prosser proudly pointed out that the Vancouver increase during the same period was only 13 per cent and drew the conclusion that "Kelowna is growing faster than Vancouver."

The actual consumption in July was 773,648 kilowatt hours. In July, 1947, the figure was 615,754. The increase for the month was 157,894.

VERNON BOARD WILL SUPPORT IMPLEMENTATION

Will Back Kelowna and Penticton on Flood Control

The Vernon Board of Trade has written the Kelowna Board of Trade that it has approved the stand taken by Kelowna and Penticton asking for the implementation of the engineers' flood control report.

At the meeting in Penticton three weeks ago, the Vernon Board representatives stated they could not support the motion asking for implementation of the report because they had not been instructed by their organization. The same stand was taken by the representatives of the Vernon City Council and the Coldstream Council.

Irrigation Ditch Discussed At Peachland Council Meeting

PEACHLAND—At the regular meeting of the Municipal Council held in the Municipal Hall, Thursday evening of last week, the cement ditch from Toxmouth to the bank on the main topic of discussion. A letter was read from the Peachland Irrigation District, stating the present ditch was not satisfactory, seepage water that had already been paid for by the P.I.D., they would pay the bill and also half the upkeep of the ditch. The Reeve, C. O. Whinton, thought an other joint meeting should be arranged to discuss what would be satisfactory to both parties.

J. H. Wilson waited on the council to ask for a grant to be given to the Peachland Athletic Association towards the upkeep of the hall. Payments on a bank loan was due very shortly, and there are no funds on hand to pay this. The directors had been unable to put on dances and entertainments as some of the local people had not been possible to hire one. Some of the Councilors felt that as this is really a community hall, the community should be responsible for the upkeep of it and a grant of $100 was made by the council.

L. Trautman waited on the council to ask for the lease of a strip of land adjoining O. S. Keay's property on the west side of the hall. The purpose of the building a curling rink. A curling club will be organized if the land could be obtained. The council decided to lease the land at $1.00 per year, on the condition that it would be used for recreation purposes only.

There are some mosquitoes at the auto camp and the area will be sprayed. The fire hazard and weeds on property were discussed. Councilor C. F. Bradley reported some work had been done on the cemetery, and all the money appropriated for this work had been spent. The beach has been cleaned up, the brush cut down and burned.

Councillor G. W. Hawksley reported that the overflow flume had been finished, the valves for the fire hydrant had arrived and would be installed as soon as possible. The parts for the booster pump were assembled and waiting to be installed. Councillor K. Domi reported the machine shed was up but not finished. It had cost more than the estimate. He thought all tools belonging to the municipality should be stamped, and they should be signed for when taken out. Councillor G. Birkelund will grade the town streets. The back lane to the post office is also in poor shape.

Miss Carol Oliver, of Seattle, and Miss Barbara Moore, of Florida, nieces of Mrs. E. H. Pierce, were guests for a few days last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Pierce.

Mrs. W. Dryden left Wednesday of last week for a few days' stay in Vernon.

Mrs. C. C. Duquemin left Wednesday of last week to visit her son at the coast.

Mrs. L. Smith left Sunday for a two weeks' stay at the coast.

Rev. and Mrs. C. Cluxton, and son, are staying at the Manse and are in charge of the United Church during the absence of Rev. H. S. McDonald on holiday.

MOVIE QUICKIES

"Fiesta," new M-G-M technical musical, which was filmed largely in Mexico and which opens at the Empress Theatre this week, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, is a brilliantly enacted, beautifully photographed production whose plot is as completely engrossing as are its melodic numbers and spectacular backgrounds—a rarity in film musicals.

Esther Williams, who in "Easy to Wed," revealed that her talents extend beyond her famed swimming prowess, once again demonstrates an amazing versatility in "Fiesta," in which she plays a feminine matador who gives the honor of her family when her twin brother is labelled a coward in the bull ring. The brother is played by the Mexican film idol, Ricardo Montalban, whose looks, dancing ability and dramatic talent will undoubtedly keep him in U.S. films from now on.

Woven into the dramatic episodes of "Fiesta" are colorful musical sequences against authentic Mexican fiesta backgrounds in which the dancing and singing of Miss Williams, Montalban, and Cyd Charisse are highlighted. Together with the principals, the cast features Fortunio Bonanova, as the promiscuous Morales, Akim Tamiroff as his former banderillero, John Carroll as Marias fiance, Mary Astor as her mother and Hugo Haas as Contreras, the conductor, and all of them are expertly cast.

Theatre-goers who have long looked to Charles Chaplin for matchless comedy, will find it again in "Monsieur Verdoux," his latest and most startling film, which opens at the Empress Theatre Monday, for two days only. Although Chaplin's tramp has become a sinister modern French Bluebeard and the sensational theme of the picture is murder as a business, the motion picture is hilarious and popular entertainment.

As an individual, Chaplin has an unending sense of comedy. Players and technicians who work with him on the friendly and informal Chaplin lot never become tired of the impromptu postures, stunts and performing with which he entertained himself—and them—between takes. Conversationally, the comedian was known for a kindly but subtle wit.

Because the comedian's sense of humor had unlimited scope, he blended satire and slapstick successfully in "Monsieur Verdoux." Social aspects of the film are grimly humorous—details of the action are deliciously funny.

In addition in "Monsieur Verdoux," there is a peculiar intensity

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

OPPOSER TO LIQUOR

Editor, Kelowna Courier:

Now that the Benvoulin district has gained a licensed hotel, the profits from bottle drinking will be diverted to another channel of profit where a man can make a beast or brute of himself when he comes home late at night.

With bottle drinking in cars, at dances, and along side roads, he has only to speed up a bit more to where a telephone post looks like a tree and he doesn't get home again. If I am not mistaken, it costs the British Columbia treasury officials $20,000,000 a year to run the social security department, and it will cost more and more each year so that the beer parlors may carry on. The taxes that the distillers pay do not begin to pay or commensurate the damage done to the human system. Modified drinking is just as damaging to the heart, liver, and internal organs, as the man that makes a hog of himself. Alcohol hardens the arteries till something breaks loose and follows the blood stream to where it restricts the flow. Then we may get apoplexy, coronary occlusion, high blood pressure, hypertension. Hypertension has a definition as being unable to adjust ones self to the rough and tumble of life—alive one day, and dead the next. I wonder how many people can remember back say 50 years or more before the W.C.T.U. was organized across the line, when the American of drama, an even more peculiar hysteria of laughter and a strange love story that hurts—combined to give audiences something more than just another evening in the theatre but instead a shocking and fascinating experience.

With Chaplin as the star, "Monsieur Verdoux" features Martha Raye, Isobel Elsom, and Robert Lewis, and introduces for the first time Marilyn Nash. Chaplin wrote and directed "Monsieur Verdoux" himself.

bar rooms were haunted with the fear of a liquor crusader, Mrs. Carrie Nation, a great, big brawny, red as long as the woman with the hat-faced, spattered with freckles, hat-chet in one hand, usually the right, left arms sweeping glasses, bottle, with one resounding smash onto the floor. Now what has been done, can be half awake with their frantically duplicated again. This woman, health and weather permitting, was a terror to the bartender what they had for municipal police. Well that august body always high-tailed it down a blind alley there to stay full of tear gas for the time being. Had the Rutland women folks chosen a larger dry vote could have been polled. Thank you Mr. Editor. WESLEY SEARLE.

EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS

by Don Graham

When we speak of men as being "successful" it is generally assumed that we are referring to large incomes and prominent positions. But, while these are signs of success, they are by no means its only yardsticks.

Actually, I believe any man is successful who uses his energies and talents to the best of his ability. His earnings may be modest. But if he tries to improve himself and his environment, if he is dependable, agreeable and helpful, if he cares for his family and their needs, he is truly important.

Show me a man with these qualities and I will be proud to claim his acquaintance.

The best objective, surely, is to strive for success in the broader sense of helping to make this a better world!

The world is better because of life insurance which has achieved success through meeting people's need for financial security. And it contributes to the betterment of the whole nation through investments in public works and vital industries which benefit every citizen.

GARDEN PARTY NETS OYAMA W.I. TOTAL OF $125

OYAMA — The regular meeting of the Okanagan Women's Institute was held last Thursday evening in the Memorial Hall. President Mrs. I. Aldred was in the chair and 16 persons were present.

In the financial report which was given by the treasurer, Mrs. N. Allingham, it was disclosed that approximately $125 had been cleared at the recent garden party.

Arrangements are being made to invite Okanagan Centre and Winfield Institute members to Oyama to hear Dr. Hittmanova when she comes here to speak in the fall.

Miss Cross spoke to the meeting on the work of the Extension Department of the U.B.C.

It was decided to offer the services of the Institute members to the school principal to help with the annual Halloween Party and a committee was set up.

A health quiz was then given by the health convenor, Mrs. C. Putnam. The meeting was divided into two groups for the questioning.

Mrs. V. E. Ellison and Mrs. L. Norman were hostesses for the tea which was served during a recess.

Mrs. Aldred told the meeting that the plebiscite on the sale of beer in Oyama, other than at the Legion, will be voted on August 20.

Everyone checked up to find if they are on the provincial voters' list. Unless a person has filled out a card during the last year they are not on this list.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Hill returned Monday to his home in Clive, Alberta.

Miss Ann Engleman and Miss Vera Whittingham have returned to the Royal Inland Hospital, Kamloops, where they are nurses, following a three weeks vacation at their respective homes in Kelowna.

"AUTOGRAPH, SIR"—It's a great moment for this youngster in Ottawa as he gets the first autograph from Rt. Hon. Louis St. Laurent, just after he was chosen to lead the Liberal party. It will be a memorable day for the two as well as for Prime Minister Mackenzie King, the former chief, who is seen beaming in the background.

Handicraft Courses at Oyama Are Proving Very Successful

OYAMA — The course in home furnishing and decorating which is being given by Miss E. Cross, a former Vernon girl, now of the U.B.C. Extension department, is being held in the Oyama school.

On the first afternoon, Monday, August 10, Miss Cross gave a talk on the work of the extension department and provided the 10 class members with printed material on almost any subject they wished.

On the second and succeeding days, members got down to work. Some had old or stained furniture to be refinished and it turned out to look like new. A dining room table, several radios, and other small articles of furniture were all given the new look.

One member had enough ambition to make a bedroom chair, first making the padding, and then making a slip cover of pleasing material to match the bedroom. Another member, with even more ambition, made a slip cover for a chesterfield.

Other women were covering butter and cheese boxes, producing handy hassocks and lidded boxes, covered with the new and lovely plastic finished leatherette.

Materials are also available for making cushions, fogs, and many kinds of needlework. Miss Cross is at everyone's beck and call with answers to all kinds of questions and many helpful suggestions, and is willing to show anyone in doubt the best way to proceed.

If you didn't know your neighbor very well, after you have seen her in slacks or working smock smeared to the eyebrows with paint remover or varnish, or have exchanged tools and suggestions for needlecraft or other work then you really know her at her best or worst and appreciate her a great deal more than you did before.

OYAMA SUNDAY SCHOOL PUPILS ENJOY PICNIC

OYAMA — Instead of the Sunday School picnic which has been the usual thing for several years past, a Beach Party with a huge bonfire was given on Wednesday evening, August 18, at Lett's beach on the east side of Wood's Lake, for the children of St. Mary's Anglican Sunday School.

Games and swimming were the order of the evening and plenty of ice cream was provided for the 25 youngsters along with hot dogs and drinks.

A sum of money had been donated by the Oyama W.I. to defray expenses and party arrangements were looked after by Rev. and Mrs. A. R. Lett and Mrs. H. P. Walker.

Miss Lois Morens, of Hope, B.C., returned to her home after spending the past month with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. M. Orasuk.

Misses Joan and Mary Petereder have returned home after a week's vacation to Calgary.

PROVINCE IS REBUILDING CRESTON DIKES

D. F. Penfold in Charge of Rehabilitation Program

The Honorable E. T. Kenney, minister of lands and forests, has announced that Mr. G. P. McRoe, deputy minister of lands, has just returned from an inspection of the flooded areas in the southeastern part of the province, especially of the water rights branch. The work of reconstructing the dikes will be done by the direct supervision of D. K. Penfold, chief engineer of the water rights branch, the cost being assumed by the province under authority of legislation passed at the recent special session of the Legislature. Work is already proceeding. Mr. Kenney has also arranged details of payments to be made to the districts and cities on account of flood fighting costs, and of re-establishment of improvements.

Already in hand is the work of assisting the many individual flood victims in the re-establishment of their homes and farms, this also being under the jurisdiction of Hon. E. T. Kenney outside the Fraser Valley. For the detailed field work the assessors, assisted by the district agriculturists, public works and water rights engineers, lands inspectors and other departmental employees, are responsible under the supervision of government agents. This phase of the problem is also well in hand and proceeding rapidly.

OYAMA LEGION OPPOSES RCAF VETS' GROUP

OYAMA — It was decided at the recent regular monthly meeting of the Oyama Branch of the Canadian Legion to send a letter to the Provincial Command in Vancouver advising them that the Oyama branch is not in favor of the proposed formation of an R.C.A.F. national organization. It was felt that the formation of a new veterans' association would only tend to split the membership. It was the general opinion of the meeting that the Canadian Legion, as it now exists, is able to take care of all veteran needs, particularly in the small communities.

Due to the favorable financial condition of the Oyama branch, it was decided to pay off three more debentures. The names drawn were D. Dewar, A. Flavell and R. Allingham.

A vote of thanks was given R. Claridge, who through pressure of business, has been forced to resign from the executive committee. J. H. Elliott was appointed to fill the vacancy.

The question of the sponsorship of swimming classes for children was brought up for discussion and the branch will consider the matter for next year.

A donation of $10 was voted to the local Boy Scout Association. The dangerous railway crossing at Canal Bridge was discussed and a letter will be sent to the C.N.R.

After spending a three weeks vacation with Mrs. H. Maranda, Miss Ozilva Maranda and Miss Frances Litwin have returned to Palo Alto, California.
